requires the order sanctioning the extra guard to be communicated to him through the Financial Department and the authority relied on by him is para 612 of the Upper Treasury Manual. That para requires that "all orders sanctioning the increase or revision of salaries and establishments and other permanent charges and any strange expenditure involving a debit against the next years' grants" to be issued "from the Financial Deptt or communicated through that Deptt". The use of the word 'other' in the first clause seems to indicate that only orders which impose a permanent burden on the finances of the State that have to be so issued or communicated and not an order of the present kind which sanctions an extra temporary establishment on the occurrence of a known contingency, the charge being of a non-recurring nature & duly provided for in the Budget.

The practice in the past has neither been regular nor uniform. In the following cases the orders, so far as can be made out, have not been conferred in the Fin' Deptt:- Pris 10-13-2 ; Pris 5-14-9 ; & Pris 11-12-2 Whereas in Pris 5-14-2 & Pris 5-14-4 the orders were issued thro' Br II by this branch suo motu and in
